CALL FOR SPH STUDENT POSTERS 2019

In honor of Public Health Week 2019, SPH is hosting the 14th Annual Dr. Jean Brender Delta Omega Student Research Poster Symposium and Contest April 1st-8th, 2019 in the SPH Classroom Building. The poster symposium provides an opportunity to showcase the research, outreach, and practice activities of SPH Graduate and Undergraduate students.

- The top three student research posters at the Graduate and Undergraduate levels in the research poster contest will receive awards

- The top two student research posters entries at the Graduate and Undergraduate levels will also be invited to compete for slots in the Annual Delta Omega Student Poster Session during APHA’s Annual Conference to be held in Philadelphia, Nov 2nd -6th, 2019.

Appropriate topics for student posters include a range of on-going SPH activities including:

- Research
- Outreach
- Practice

Students should consult with their faculty advisors regarding the content of abstracts and posters.

KEY DATES AND DEADLINES

To enter a poster for display, students should complete the Abstract Entry form and send it to Maria Guzman (guzman@tamhsc.edu) by the abstract deadline listed below. The abstract entry form is available at: (https://sph.tamhsc.edu/research/awards/poster-session.html)

A Poster “How-To” Workshop will be held Monday, February 11 (2:00PM-2:50PM). This session is provided by other SPH students to offer guidance in preparing and presenting posters. Example posters will be provided.

Contest Eligibility: A current SPH student must be the lead author for their poster to be judged for the competition. All posters submitted for the contest must be current (created after April 2018) and must have appropriate IRB or IACUC clearance. Posters based on class or practicum projects without IRB clearance are eligible for display in the symposium, but are not eligible for the contest or awards.

SPH STUDENT RESEARCH POSTER GUIDELINES

Poster Setup Deadlines: Friday, March 29th from 9AM to 4PM in the Classroom Building (push pins and board assignments will be provided). Posters will remain on display throughout Public Health Week. Participants should remove their posters on Monday April 8th before noon. Students unable to set up or remove your poster must notify Maria Guzman (guzman@sph.tamhsc.edu) and the Office of Research to set up/remove/store the poster as requested by Thursday, March 28th. Posters not set up and on display by 10AM on Monday, April 1st will be ineligible for the contest or related awards. SPH reserves the right to request edits or remove any posters that do not conform to professional poster standards.

Oral Poster Presentation: Participants are required to attend the poster walk through/judging session on Tuesday April 2nd from 4PM-5:30PM and Wednesday, April 3rd from 4PM-5:30PM. During this time, the judges will walk through the exhibit. Students should plan to stand by their respective posters and provide a 3-5 minute overview as judges walk through the poster session. Attire is business casual. Light refreshments will be served. This presentation is part of the overall scoring criteria and attendance is mandatory for students entering the research poster contest.

Judging: Posters will be judged by members of the SPH Research Committee and/or other SPH Faculty beginning Monday, April 1st at 12 PM through Thursday April 4th 5:30PM. First, second, and third place winners at the Graduate and Undergraduate levels will be notified in advance to request their attendance at the award event along with advisors, respective Department Head, and collaborators. Photographs of the awardees will be posted on the SPH website.

NOTE TO UNDERGRADUATES. Please discuss the specific content/required elements with your Research Faculty Advisor.
General Guidance:

The SPH Annual Student Poster Symposium and Contest is a professional event requiring adherence to generally accepted poster and presentation standards. Posters that do not conform to the guidelines included herein as well as generally accepted poster and professional presentation standards including standards of conduct may at any time, at the organizers discretion, be pulled from the final presentation roster and denied inclusion in the event.

Display Board: Posters will be displayed on the stand-alone bulletin boards (provided by SPH). The board dimensions are 69 inches wide x 58 inches long.

Poster Size: The standard poster size is approximately 40 inches wide x 56 inches long (this is the standard size printed by HSC graphics). Examples of professionally printed posters are available at http://SPH.tamhsc.edu/communications/templates.html

Poster Printing: Poster printing services are available through the SPH Communications Department at http://SPH.tamhsc.edu/communications/poster-request.html. Questions regarding pricing for poster printing can be directed to Maria Guzman at guzman@sph.tamhsc.edu Posters must be submitted by March 18th for printing at SPH.

Font and Style: Use simple to read fonts such as Ariel, Helvetica, Geneva, or Times Roman. Check to ensure the number of decimal places is reasonable for numbers. Be consistent throughout poster presentation.

Title: The banner across top should include the title, author(s), and affiliations. The title should be readable from 10-15 feet away. Letters in title should be 84 to 86 point font; authors and affiliations can use smaller font sizes. SPH and TAMU seals are recommended for inclusion in the banner and are available for download through the communications website.
